In the 1870s, ranchers Abner Sprague, William James, and Alexander MacGregor raised cattle while the Earl of Dunraven bought land for a private hunting reserve. It was neither cows nor hunting that defined Estes Park, though. Visitors were attracted to its beauty and crystalline mountain air. Inspired by conservationist John Muir, Enos Mills preserved the area's splendor by spearheading the establishment of Rocky Mountain National Park while F.O. Stanley welcomed guests to his regal Stanley Hotel, the inspiration for Stephen King's novel The Shining. As cars replaced horses downtown, Charlie Eagle Plume entertained visitors with Indian dancing, and "Casey" Martin offered children rides on his Silver Streak train. In the off-season when tourists were scarce, grocer Ron Brodie extended credit to the locals, and George Hurt ran lifts for skiers at Hidden Valley. But it was adversity that tested the town and defined its character. After the 1982 Lawn Lake Flood inundated Elkhorn businesses, town officials revitalized the downtown landscape with urban renewal. When the devastating 2013 flood washed out mountain roads and isolated Estes Park, local businesses banded together and were "Mountain Strong."

History comes alive in the collected biographies and memoirs of "Everyday Heroes" penned by 8th grade students at Harlan Rowe Junior High. Through the Oral History Project, students conducted interviews and did research into the interests and history of their own Everyday Heroes. Generations bond together as lifetimes and worlds of experience are explored and celebrated. It is not uncommon to hear, "I didn't know my grandma had lived through so much in her life." Enjoy, with us, the lives and stories preserved within these pages.

Finding Mom is a story of tragedy, secrets, and forgiveness. As a six-year-old, Steve Messer found his mother's body after she committed suicide in 1961, and for the next fifty years, he and his family lived in silence about her death and her life. This book chronicles the physical and emotional journey the author and his wife took to find his mother again, but this time as a fully human woman instead of a haunting figure shrouded in silence, this time as the mom who deeply loved her son in the midst of her deepening depression. Responding to a gentle but unmistakable nudge from the Lord, leaning on supportive family members, and utilizing his training as a historian, Messer spent six months gathering documents and images, interviewing individuals who knew his mother, and traveling to sites associated with her life. The physical journey culminated with two family gatherings that welcomed Marian Pett Messer back after the decades of silence, but the emotional journey of new-found understandings of family, grace, forgiveness, and what it means to be human will continue for a lifetime.

If you wonder what has happened to our Christian Heritage in America, what has been missing in our schools and college history classes, and why Christianity is so demeaned in our culture, read this book. We have squandered what our Founders gave us. Grandma Tucker gives us a review of what we have lost, how we have lost it, and what we need to do to recover our patriotism, our love of country, our Founders and their incredible documents left to us, and the Christian Heritage of our exceptional republic. We must educate a new generation of patriots, and we must reeducate those who have come to feel guilty and angry about our America. What effect will the Presidency of Donald Trump have on our Republic? You'll want to read the new section called. "Trumped." - Sylvia Boltz Tucker
