The Complete Advocate is a comprehensive guide to the advocate from the beginning of a case to its end. This book covers the essential skills needed to perform well as an advocate including research, writing, time management, client interviewing and public speaking. Technical topics such as examination in chief, cross-examination, civil and criminal applications, opening and closing speeches, appellate advocacy, court etiquette, traditions and ethics for lawyers are also examined. The author adopts a practical approach to the topics giving many examples to guide beginner advocates.

The skill of advocacy is of primary importance to the legal practitioner. To succeed as an advocate, one must master a number of skills. This Manual takes the different advocacy skills which are essential for the junior practitioner and presents them in a practical and accessible manner.The Manual is divided into several different sections. The early chapters look at the fundamental qualities and abilities which any successful advocate needs. They will assist any beginner, when observing a trial or other hearing in court, to understand what to look for.The key to advocacy is preparation. This Manual explains what is needed. In preparing for trial, the advocate begins at the end - by preparing the closing speech. The Manual therefore examines the crucial tasks of making opening and closing speeches. In turn, the plan for a closing speech willprovide the framework for the examination-in-chief and cross-examination of witnesses. Several chapters explain how to perform these tasks, with reference to the advocate's ethical obligations. Questioning techniques are explained and illustrated with examples. In addition to trials, there is a wide variety of applications that an advocate might make to a court or tribunal. The Manual concludes with chapters showing the junior practitioner how to prepare and perform many of these applications, including references to current practice and procedure.This Manual has been written by experienced advocacy trainers and practitioners. Their guidance on "dos" and "don'ts" provides a remarkable insight into the skills, techniques, and good practice upon which any advocate's performance will be judged.

To be a skillful advocate is of primary importance to the legal practitioner. Success as an advocate requires mastery of many skills. This manual identifies the different advocacy skills, which are essential for the junior practitioner and guides the reader through them in a practical and accessible manner. The manual is divided into six sections. The first three sections look at the fundamental qualities and abilities, which any successful advocate needs. These sections will help any beginner to understand what to look for, when observing a trial or other hearing in court. The fourth section of the manual examines the crucial tasks of preparing and making an opening or closing speech. The plan for a closing speech should provide the framework for planning and delivering the examination-in-chief and cross-examination of witnesses. The fifth section deals with witness handling; several chapters explain in detail how to question witnesses,

This complete five-volume set includes: --Voir Dire and Opening Argument --Direct Examination --Cross Examination --Summation --Anatomy of a Trial (co-authored with Professor Stephen A. Saltzburg). The trial process is the sum of its parts: opening argument, direct and cross examination, and summation. In Trying Cases to Win, nationally known trial lawyer Herbert J. Stern provides an overall blueprint for conduct in the courtroom as he guides the reader through each of these segments. Rather than a collection of anecdotal war stories from various trials, Stern outlines the nuts and bolts of the right-and wrong-approach, processes and strategies for every component needed for trial success. Each volume is also available separately. Herbert J. Stern is a highly regarded trial lawyer and accomplished teacher of trial techniques. A partner and founding member in the New Jersey law firm of Stern & Kilcullen, Stern is a former Federal Judge, having served as United States district judge for the District of New Jersey from 1974 to 1987. He established his reputation as an advocate while serving as a trial attorney with the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the United States Department of Justice from 1965 to 1969 and as United States attorney for the District of New Jersey from 1970 to 1974 when he won a national reputation for unprecedented convictions of numerous public officials. He was founder and Co-Director of the Advocacy Institute at the University of Virginia School of Law from 1980 to the present. He was Special Counsel for Hon. Lawrence Walsh, Independent Counsel, Iran-Contra Prosecution, 1988. Judge Stern was the subject of the book, Tiger in the Court (Chicago: Playboy Press, 1973). He is the author of Judgment in Berlin (New York: Universe Books, 1984) which was made into a major motion picture with Sean Penn, and Martin Sheen playing Judge Stern; and, most recently, Diary of a DA: The True Story of the Prosecutor Who Took On the Mob, Fought Corruption, and Won (New York: Skyhorse Publishing, 2012). ..." a crowning achievement in a career devoted to helping all lawyers, from beginners to veterans, become more knowledgeable in the art of advocacy." -- Arthur J. Greenbaum, Cowan, Liebowitz & Latman, PC, New York, NY

Written by experienced advocates and advocacy trainers, Advocacy provides an excellent introduction to the skills and techniques required to be an advocate. Coverage includes guidance on making opening and closing speeches; planning and delivering examination-in-chief and cross-examination; questioning witnesses; as well as examples of specific questioning techniques which may be employed in practice. Additionally, authors highlight the ethical boundaries and rules within which an advocate must work. Advocacy covers both criminal and civil court proceedings, and includes a number of how-to-do-it guides illustrating how particular applications should be made in practice.
