The year is 1934. The picturesque town of Monghyr, in Bihar, lies devastated after a massive earthquake. The mansion of the Chattopadhyays - an old aristocratic family - continues to stand upright though a wall is cracking right down the middle. The members of the big joint family find their lives suddenly touched by the eerie and the inexplicable. The ancient house has always had its share of creaks and quirks, but now strange incidents suddenly start occurring. The eight short stories in Lamplight walk a fine line between the ordinary and the paranormal. Family bonds form the backdrop to the stories, and old-world values and the laidback lifestyle of a bygone era lend them a unique charm. The paranormal connection of the Chattopadhyay family spans across generations. A range of characters touched with an odd enchantment greet you. The ghosts that flit through the stories - be it the gluttonous, desperate-to-be-married Tigmanshu or Chitra pishi who is out to wreak havoc or the generous Nimaida who acts as a guardian angel - are never boring or predictable! While the stories are sure to send a chill down your spine, the characters with their kindness and warmth, will not fail to touch your heart. The year is 1934. The Path to Redemption traces the life of the protagonist, Shivaji Joshi, along with happenings in modern India in the post-independence era. Shivaji's childhood revolves around his single mother who is a brilliant academic. In his early life and college years, Shivaji spends a great deal of time under the influence of his mother's brother, who is a closet homosexual and a religious bigot. This influence leads Shivaji to do things that he eventually regrets, spending the rest of his life trying to redeem himself. He suffers great physical pain and mental anguish during his life, and the loss of family, betrayal, as well as violence that he experiences, test his resolve beyond measure. At what price will redemption come? Will Shivaji find the peace he seeks?

Dramayan is a story of friendship, family and love. It's based in a small town of Karkala, a sleepy town at the base of Western Ghats in Karnataka. It traces travels and travails of a boy from boyhood to manhood. Happiness, hurt, heartbreak and hunt for the elusive. The protagonist grows up in an era before the world shrunk permanently thanks to internet. Dramayan is an ode to nostalgia. Dr. Govind Raj Shenoy (GR7) is a Doctor. He hails from Karkala in Karnataka, graduated from Government Medical College Bellary and lives in Kochi with his family. He is a polyglot with decent grasp of 9 languages. Cricket is religion. A Blogger since early days, he rants on Social media and writes satire for Organiser weekly apart from many online portals. He also indulges in writing fiction occasionally. GR7 is a nickname given by friends.
