The 101 original duets of "Celebrations" progress from simple whole notes to expert level duets with a steady graduation of difficulty between the two. The unexpected twists and turns make the book fun to work through, and the diverse styles (including baroque, classical, salsa, jazz, guapango, and African 12-8) keep it interesting. While the music is highly entertaining and enjoyable to play, this 165-page book is about more than just entertainment value. Each of the 101 duets is composed around a particular skill. By the time a musician has mastered a piece, he or she will also have acquired or honed a valuable skill. No other trumpet duet book offers so much value for money: rich entertainment subtly embedded with invaluable lessons and challenges designed to promote musical growth. If you are looking for a duet book that integrates variety, originality, and challenges for every skill level, then "Celebrations" should be your first choice. Whether you are a music teacher looking to add some excitement to your lessons by including duets suitable for your students' skill level, or a professional wanting to hone particular skills, or a beginner looking for a way to grow as a musician by integrating fun-to-play duets into your practice or jam sessions, "Celebrations" will meet your need at the level required.

Go With the Flow for Trumpet by Eddie Lewis includes twenty-one original flow study etudes tailored to be used with the Daily Routines book. With three etudes for each of the seven levels of the Daily Routine book, the Go With the Flow book begins with simple quarter-note and half-note flow studies limited in range to tuning note C. It progresses to advanced flow study etudes which cover a full professional range. The etudes systematically cover all twelve keys and a variety of time signatures. While the Go With the Flow book was originally intended to be used as a supplement to the more popular Daily Routines, it is also used by some trumpet players as a more musical alternative to a physical trumpet warm-up. Flow studies are a trumpet tradition rooted in the teaching of cornetist Herbert L. Clarke who taught them as moving long tones. They feature mostly step wise motion and are primarily slurred. The purpose of practicing flow studies is to develop greater control of the air-stream.

Trumpet players! Do you need to improve your range, endurance, flexibility or sound? Daily Routines is a proven approach which has helped thousands of trumpet players grow in strength without having to resort to annoying high note methods. Daily Routines is NOT a high note method. Yet, most of its users have greater range than people who call themselves -screamers-. The difference is that Daily Routines does not work on range separately from other aspects of trumpet playing. Range is a by-product of strength, and strength comes from very specific daily practice habits. With the Daily Routines book, you can play higher with greater endurance AND produce a quality sound. The systematic design of the routines makes the progress automatic. There is no need to stress over physical mechanics. The book is designed so that playing the exercises in the correct order automatically leads to proper physical technique.

Trumpet Chops Apprentice is the fourth book in the Trumpet Chops series. This is a daily trumpet routine written specifically for trumpet players with a range up to B flat above the staff. It is part of the One Range system of exercise books, but can be used as a stand alone routine. It is a great intermediate book for helping students expand their range from G above the staff to the high C.

companion volume to A Catalogue of Choral Music Arranged in Biblical Order (Second edition, 1996, and supplement, 2001, both published by Scarecrow Press). It is a necessary tool for the church musician to coordinate music with the scripture readings and/or the sermon topic and a valuable aid to the vocal soloist seeking a work using a particular biblical text. The work serves as a working document for the church musician, soloist, or voice teacher. Titles are arranged in the same order as found in the Bible. Each entry contains title, composer, voice range/type, and publisher information. Two indexes are also included: a title index and a composer index.

Trumpet/Duets. A collection of easy classical melodies, composed by Beethoven, Mozart, Händel, Rathgeber, Rameau, Brahms, Lehar, Fauré, Tchaikovsky, and Puscoiu. There are also a few carefully-selected beautiful folk songs from around the world. These duets are especially arranged for the beginning player. A wonderful addition to any musician's repertoire.
