Michael W. Smith - Deep In Love With You Lyrics | MetroLyrics

When someone falls deeply in love, it's easy to guess. When a man's feelings towards a woman develop, they actually belong to one or the other of the following 2 categories. Either it is a light love, almost a tender and confused banter, or it is a deep love, an adoration made of passion almost bordering the obsession.

Out there... on the open roads of life, our journey awaits. On this road there may be many life lessons, and several detours that could lead us to higher paths of understanding. "How Deep Do You Think Love Can Get? The Next Level!" is a book of poetry that tears down the walls of illusions of love. This wonderful book of poetry has come to me as a timeless essential road map that encourages its readers to ascend their thoughts into a higher realm of self - reflection concerning one of the most controversial topics of all time, LOVE. Keith's poetry holds keys and principles that emphasize one's need to understand the inner depths of their being and their personal relationship with God. "How Deep Do You Think Love Can Get? The Next Level!" holds the formula that has been fashioned from the most essential ingredients, which consist of patience, long suffering, sacrifice, self healing, self-reflection, Agape love, solitude, service, and selflessness. Keith's methods, lessons, and principles, will unveil as the readers redirect their attention to the substance of his message. These writings of love contribute to metaphorical and multidimensional lessons to sustain a healthy relationship between Man, Woman, Child, and The Most Sovereign (GOD).

Isaiah "Black" and Zachariah "Ghost" Anderson are brothers and complete opposites. The only thing these brothers have in common is their love for each other, loyalty for the streets, and the fact that they tolerate disrespect from no one. With different yet equally absent fathers, Black and Ghost have polar opposite views on life, fatherhood, and love. Black, already a father of two, wants to settle down. With baby mama drama coming from two women, he's hoping when he meets Chloe Fisher that the third time will be the charm. When Chloe first meets Black, he's looking for a caregiver for his grandmother, and Chloe is admittedly smitten by him – but that changes when he breaks four of her five rules on their first date. One night of lust, that's what they both agreed to, but will it be that easy to pull away? Ghost has no desire for marriage, love, or children. After he's cheated on by the only woman he allowed himself to trust, Ghost promises to get even. Unfortunately, Carli Fisher gets caught up in his scheme of revenge. And even more unfortunately, Carli turns out to be the woman Ghost never knew he needed. Will he be able to secure and enjoy love for the first time in his life, or will Carli be yet another woman that causes him pain?

She is the little princess that everybody envy in river city but unluckily took a fancy to the poor boy that the name does not pass on despite all the gossip she was too much in love but he said su qianqian i will not love you she smiled whether you love me or not you are mine but in the end she used too many things to commemorate the love when the world falls into darkness she holds herself tight shen shenyuan i spare you also spare myself

Things are not always as they seem – that's the lesson both Chloe and Carli have learned the hard way. Dealing with brothers Black and Ghost has put both sisters in the position to be hurt. Chloe wants blood. And revenge. And she will not rest until everyone who had a hand in hurting her and her sister has been handled. Somewhere along the line, Black creeps inside of the shattered pieces of her heart, and Chloe has to choose to give him a second chance or punish him for the sins of her last man. They say that anything worth having is worth fighting for. It takes losing Carli for Ghost to realize that. She is committed to having nothing to do with him, and Ghost is committed to doing whatever it takes to get her back. While Carli admires his fight, some betrayals cause cuts too deep to be healed. Tragedy strikes and all of their lives are changed forever. They must choose to go deep in love or remain above the surface... somehow still drowning in their pain.

Are you really ready to find love in your life? Are you ready to experience a love like never before? Then first things first: You gotta be willing to love God the way He commands us to love Him. Simply put, you've loved before. And while that love may have felt like you were soaring on cloud nine during the beginning stages, it also led you to fall and hit rock bottom. Yes, love involves risk, and sometimes it can sting... But what if there was a love that was none of those things? What if love was meant to be more... And what if that love was available to you every second of the day for every moment of your life? The Love Deep Seven-Day Devotional was created to introduce (rather, re-introduce) you to God's love for you, the way He actually intended you to receive it. This devotional goes deep into the details behind what it truly means to love God's way, and how you can apply it into your everyday living and love life! Here's What's Included In This 42-Page Devotional... - Daily scriptures to allow you to dig deeper into the Word. - Digging Deeper Bible study to understand each daily scripture. - Major Moments to fully understand the lesson behind the Word. - Topics that cover love in God, self-love, past/present/future relationships, and future love life. - Find Love questions that will inspire to create practical steps to find love. - Action steps to take each day. - Reflection questions to challenge you to grow in love. - Daily "Say's" to bring the love lesson to life in your own words. - Personal prayers to pray over yourself and your love life. - Perfect to complete with friends as a study group!

PREFACE "Sometimes baby, love lies deep ... a man gets buried in your soul and there ain't no getting him out." Her mother had said that to her once. The words haunted her as she thought about Satchel. He'd been the one to end their relationship over seven years ago, so what did he want now? And what did he mean he wouldn't stay away from her; that he'd never wanted to. She had fought hard to get over Satchel, and one thing she knew for sure ... there was no way she was letting him back in -- not after the way he'd crushed her all those years ago. She couldn't live through that kind of pain again. No human could endure that twice in a lifetime. And, she knew just how to keep him away. Only, could she go through with it? Or, would the love that had lain so deeply within her for him resurface, leading to heartbreak all over again?  Three years earlier "Sometimes baby, love lies deep ... a man gets buried in your soul and there ain't no getting him out," Celia said to her daughter. "Have you ever felt that way about a man mama?" "Yes, once. Who? Daddy?" Nylah asked. "No honey. I loved your father, but a bit before I met him, there was someone else ..." "You mean you loved another man more than you loved daddy?" Nylah queried, incredulous. She'd never even imagined her mother with another man. "Nylah I had a life before your father," her mother said simply. "I was quite the looker you know. I had a few suitors before your father settled me down. But, a woman doesn't have to tell all her secrets. In fact, there are some things she never tells another soul. That's just the way of a woman." "Well ... why haven't you ever told me any of this before? Did daddy know?" "You mean did he know if I dated other men before he came along? ... Of course he did," Celia answered before Nylah could confirm or deny her question. "Why do you think he was so quick to propose? He did so after three weeks of courting me, you know?" Nylah smiled and shook her head. She'd heard the story many times. It was ironic, she thought. She'd dated a man for three, almost four years and instead of proposing, he'd given her her walking papers. Her mother, on the other hand, had gotten a marriage proposal – in three weeks. Nylah often wondered about women like her mother. What did they possess that a man couldn't resist? What secret did they have? And how did it draw a man into a lifetime commitment so quickly? Whatever special power or secret or trait it was, she hadn't inherited it. In fact, it was just the opposite. She seemed to be able to repel suitors with very little effort. "So who was he; this other man? Why didn't you marry him? What happened between you all?" Nylah asked, still flabbergasted that her mother had never even breathed a single word about someone who had obviously meant a great deal to her. "That's a story for another day and another time. But I do know of a couple who had that kind of love you're carrying around in you for Satchel. Your grandparents; your father's mama and daddy. I've never seen two people more in love. I think that's why your father was able to love me so, and why I was so devoted to him. He had the best example of what love was supposed to look and feel like – and I did my best to be the kind of wife his mother was – because lord knows my parents were a disaster. If there were two people who didn't belong together, it was my mother and father." Nylah hadn't known her mother's parents. But she smiled, thinking back on the grandparents she did know -- her father's parents. She'd witnessed the love flow between them as effortlessly as waves crashing against an ocean shore. It was a rare site to see. Even as a child, Nylah knew that there was something special about their union. They fit, like a pair of ultra-soft leather gloves molded to your hands, that's how closely and beautifully they melded into each other. "I want that mama. I want that so bad," Nylah said, her throat convulsing as she swallowed the pain threatening to engulf her. "There's someone out there for you honey. You just have to trust that." "I don't want someone mama. I want 'the one.' I want what grandma and grandpa had. ... What if I've found the one? What if it was Satchel? What if I never feel for another man the way I feel for him? It's been over a year and I haven't even mustered up enough interest to go on one date." "Give it time honey. It'll be alright. The right man will come along. You will love again." Celia placed her hand on her daughter's back and rubbed it as they sat on the front porch of the little craftsman-style bungalow the Simmons had called home for four decades. It was the home Nylah had grown up in. Her mother had nursed her through all of her teenaged heartbreaks here. They'd had many talks right on the same concrete steps they sat on now. She wasn't sure if it was fitting or pitiful that some twenty years later, her mother was still nursing her through heartbreaks. Nylah buried her face in her hands and exhaled heavily. "But will I love again like that mama?" she said, tears silently coursing down her cheeks. "Will I love like that?" she repeated.  Relevant Search Terms: interracial romance, intraracial romance, african american romance, contemporary romance, short romance, multicultural romance, short story fiction, short steamy romance, women's literature, steamy romance, chicklit

Reach your God-given potential and live a joyful life by finding your purpose in Christ with this inspiring guide from Beth Jones, host of Hillsong Channel's The Basics With Beth. The world around us is in a constant state of reinvention, from technology, to careers, to family. It's easy to struggle in the midst of change, and each season brings new challenges. But we need reinvention: the kind that leads us to new fulfillment and our calling in Christ. To Reinvent ourselves in Christ means a transformation in our hearts, souls, bodies, and minds. And we can achieve this by biblically exploring and answering the questions: What do you want? What do you have? What will you do? and Why will you do it? Let the baggage of the past become history today. Let God renew your hope, and you will experience the joy of living like never before. No matter what has happened, and no matter where you are on this journey, Reinvent will help you start fresh and love life!

That year, they had spent so much time together that he couldn't forget about her. A few years later, when he appeared before her again, his heart couldn't help but throb. But she didn't recognize him. "After a warm night, he decided to name a sky-high price and took her away, leaving her by his side." Why are you so good to me? " she asked. " Because you're the first girl I've ever had a crush on. " "Yes," he replied. Later on, she realized that he was actually the same person as she had been all those years ago ...
