Who are these men tracking Albot, a young teenager who recently became an orphan ? They seem to be looking for the objet his father gave him before he died. Albot has no other choice than run away, and place his life in some strangers hands. His journey will lead him to places so strange and hostiles that humans would never think about them. He will have to face choices that will change his life. Will he emerge unscathed from these hardships ? The first transhumanism stone is settled, and a new evolution for the human species is on its way.
