This survey encapsulates papers prepared by the Democracy and Governance Research Program of the Human Sciences Research Council on a range of critical governance issues facing the postapartheid state as the country attempts to deepen democracy and to deliver basic services to the electorate. Based on research conducted as part of the government ' s 15-year review of governance and administration, the papers focus on three issues: public sector anticorruption, local government restructuring and capacity, and the role of traditional leadership in postapartheid governance.

This book takes stock of the main changes in the management of public services across OECD countries over the past 20 years.

Respected educators, writers and editors Mark E. Haskins and Benjamin R. Makela have completely revised The CFO Handbook, the highly successful collection of articles and essays first published in 1986. In these updated chapters, esteemed CFOs and/or financial professionals describe situations both common and unique which have been encountered in their everyday business. They then present in detail their creative, effective approaches to each situation.
