The Olive Lamming Creative Writing Competition is an annual literary competition held in memory of the late Dr Olive Lamming, who was an active member of the Isle of Man Literary Society for many years. The competition dates back to 1972 when the then President of the Society, Mr R G Morton, donated a sum of money to establish a foundation to enable a literary competition to be held in perpetuity. This year, as part of the ongoing development of the Competition, the Society is publishing all the entries submitted. Inside these covers you will find a variety of writing from a number of authors – everything from a long narrative poem to a science fiction short story to an account of a volunteer 's day at Noble 's Hospital. The Isle of Man Literary Society would like to thank the Isle of Man Arts Council for their support of the Competition and Ramsey Crookall for their sponsorship of this publication.

Over the last few decades, many countries have reformed their secured transactions law. One of the main reasons has been the clear link between reform and the availability of credit, and the drive to improve access to finance, particularly for micro, small and medium-sized enterprises. This book focuses particularly on developing economies in Africa, which have legal frameworks influenced by English, French, Belgian, Roman-Dutch and other laws. Reform in this area of law across African countries has taken a number of forms, which are explored and discussed in this book. Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa is a mixture of a critical description of the pre-reform law and practice, and the reform process itself. It also includes a comparative analysis of the legal provisions and an examination of the early results of the reforms. The book sets out a road map for the future of secured transactions reform; primarily in Africa, but also in other countries that have undertaken or are contemplating similar reforms. This book is the second in a series of books about Secured Transactions Law in countries
