The units are organized around four essential components, process, genre, strategy, and conventions, addressing everything students need to know about reading and writing. Packed with ready-to-use lessons that offer exemplary teaching and continuous assessment. Features a flexible framework that shows how to frame a year of teaching, a unit, and a lesson—all easily adapted to fit the unique needs and interests of students at all levels of learning.

Newbery Medalist Karen Hesse recreates the body and soul-renewing experience of a summer downpour after a sweltering city heat wave.

Instruction in this series is organized around four grade-specific units of study at each level and a book of if/then curricular plans. The four units of study at each grade level are organized around opinion, information, and narrative writing. Each unit of study contains 18–22 sequential sessions subdivided into three to four bends, with each bend walking you step-by-step through the entire writing process from planing and drafting to revising and editing and eventually to publication. The grade-specific book If ... then ... curriculum : assessment-based instruction supports targeted instruction and differentiation with alternative assessment-based units. Each includes five to eight concise units of study for you to strategically teach before, after (or in-between) the core curriculum based on your students needs.

This series of books is designed to help upper elementary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum.
