Dopo lo straordinario successo di Il quadro mai dipinto, ecco i Foto/grammi dell'anima, il primo libro di Massimo Bisotti, in una versione ampliata e riveduta dall'autore, impreziosita da dieci splendide illustrazioni di Stefano Morri realizzate per l'occasione. Un libro che ha l'apparenza di una raccolta di fiabe contemporanee: "Il giardino dell'anima", "Il mare e la luna", "L'ombrelloio del tempo", "L'istrice solitario"... sospese tra le favole di Esopo e Il Piccolo Principe, capaci di evocare e incantare, come solo la letteratura più grande e vera sa fare. Attraverso queste storie, in cui non sempre l'uomo è protagonista, impariamo l'importanza dell'umiltà e la fatica che ognuno di noi fa per diventare se stesso. Raccontando l'amore fra due note su un pentagramma o i bisticci che agitano i colori sulla tavolozza di un pittore, Massimo Bisotti ci parla di noi, dei nostri entusiasmi e dei nostri errori di felicità, che tanto spesso ci conducono lontano dal cammino previsto. Questo libro nasconde dentro di sé un piccolo miracolo: la capacità dell'autore di scavare dentro il suo cuore e raggiungere contemporaneamente quello del lettore, creando un contatto di anime che si mettono a nudo. Ancora una volta Bisotti riesce a stupire e a commuovere, mostrandoci un cammino di vita in cui sono deposti i giudizi e i pregiudizi, diretto al riconoscimento di quello che è più vero, profondo e necessario, dentro di noi e dentro chi incontriamo nel nostro percorso. Un percorso che porta a conoscersi e riconoscersi. A vivere le emozioni fino in fondo, abbassando le difese, per quanto possa far male. Ad accettare le nostre imperfezioni piuttosto che farci uccidere dalla paura di fallire. Ricordandoci, di nuovo e sempre, la cosa più importante: "mai controucere".

As humans re-negotiate their boundaries with the nonhuman world of animals, inanimate entities and technological artefacts, new identities are formed and a new epistemological and ethical approach to reality is needed. Through twelve thought-provoking, scholarly essays, this volume analyzes works by a range of modern and contemporary Italian authors, from Giacomo Leopardi to Elena Ferrante, who have captured the shift from anthropocentrism and postmodernism to posthumanism. Indeed, this is the first academic volume investigating narrative configurations of posthuman identity in Italian literature and film.

"Barthes's most popular and unusual performance as a writer is "A Lover's Discourse," a writing out of the discourse of love. This language primarily the complaints and reflections of the lover when alone, not exchanges of a lover with his or her partner is unfashionable. Thought it is spoken by millions of people, diffused in our popular romances and television programs as well as in serious literature, there is no institution that explores, maintains, modifies, judges, repeats, and otherwise assumes responsibility for this discourse . . . Writing out the figures of a neglected discourse, Barthes surprises us in "A Lover's Discourse" by making love, in its most absurd and sentimental forms, an object of interest." Jonathan Culler

This self-help guide shows the reader step-by-step how to perform at their peak while gaining emotional and financial freedom, attaining leadership and self-confidence, and winning the confidence of others. It should enable the reader to gain the knowledge and courage to remake themselves.

Possessing a style of deceptive simplicity, emotional immediacy and tremendous psychological point, among the novels, short stories and screenplays that complete his career, Fante's crowning accomplishment is the Arturo Bandini tetralogy. This quartet of novels tell of Fante's fictional alter-ego Bandini, an impoverished young Italian-American escaping his suffocating home in Colorado for Depression-era Los Angeles. In the beginning, it is the triple weights of poverty, father and Church that Bandini struggles under but though the physical escape is complete, the psychological imprint continues as he comes to terms with love, desire and the knowledge his talent may not be recognised.

Unrequited love is hard enough when you're a normal teenager, but when you're half-human, half-mermaid Lily Sanderson, there's no such thing as a simple crush. Especially when your crush is gorgeous (and 100% human) Brody Bennett. The problem is, mermaids aren't the casual dating type - the instant they kiss someone, they 'bond' with them for life. When Lily's attempt to win Brody's love leads to an enormous case of mistaken identity, she finds herself facing a tidal wave of relationship drama.

This book proposes an integrated model of treatment for Personality Disorders (PDs) that goes beyond outdated categorical diagnoses, aiming to treat the general factors underlying the pathology of personality. The authors emphasize the development of metacognitive functions and the integration of procedures and techniques of different psychotherapies. The book addresses the treatment of complex cases that present with multiform psychopathological features, outlining clinical interventions that focus on structures of personal meaning, metacognition and interpersonal processes. In addition, this book: Provides an overview of pre-treatment phase procedures such as assessment interviews Explains the Metacognitive Interpersonal Therapy (MIT) approach and summarizes MIT clinical guidelines Outlines pharmacological treatment for patients with PDs Includes checklists and other useful resources for therapists evaluating their adherence to the treatment method Complex Cases of Personality Disorders: Metacognitive and Interpersonal Therapy is both an insightful reexamining of the theoretical underpinnings of personality disorder treatment and a practical resource for clinicians.
