Andrew Mullaney has the money to get to Aqueduct Racetrack, but nothing to bet once he gets there. It 's a tragedy, because today he 's got a sure thing: a filly named Jawbone who 's guaranteed to win. Desperate, Andrew asks every hood he knows to spot him fifty bucks, tapping chess hustlers, pool sharks, and hoodlums of every stripe, until, finally, he asks the wrong man—who responds by tossing Andrew out the door and down a flight of stairs. For this degenerate gambler, life is hard . . . and it 's about to get a hell of a lot harder. When a gleaming black Cadillac pulls up in front of him, and a man hops out wielding a Luger and telling him to get in the car, Andrew has no choice but to say yes. Little does he know, he 's just stepped into the adventure of a lifetime, and by the end of it, he 'll be rich, dead, or something far, far worse.
