The definitive firsthand account of the

Access Free In Here Out There

groundbreaking

research of Philip

Zimbardo—the basis for the award-winning film The

Stanford Prison

Experiment

Renowned social psychologist and creator of the

Page 53/87

Access Free In Here Out There

Philip Zimbardo
explores the mechanisms that make good people
do bad things,
how moral people
can be seduced into acting immorally, and what this says about the line separating good from evil. The Lucifer Effect

explains how—and the myriad reasons why—we are all susceptible to the lure of “the dark side.”

Drawing on examples from history as well as his own

trailblazing
research,

Zimbardo details

how situational
forces and group dynamics can work in concert to make monsters out of decent men and women.
Here, for the first time and in detail, Zimbardo tells the full story of the Stanford Prison

Access Free In Here Out There

Experiment, the landmark study in which a group of college-student volunteers was randomly divided into “guards” and “inmates” and then placed in a mock prison environment.

Within a week the study was

abandoned, as ordinary college students were transformed into either brutal,
sadistic guards
or emotionally broken prisoners. By illuminating the psychological causes behind such disturbing metamorphoses,

Zimbardo enables us to better understand a variety of harrowing phenomena, from corporate malfeasance to organized genocide to how once upstanding American soldiers came to abuse and

torture Iraqi detainees in Abu Ghraib. He
replaces the long-held notion of the “bad
apple” with that
barrel”—the idea that the social setting and the system contaminate the individual,

rather than the other way around. This is a book that dares to hold a mirror up to mankind, showing us that we might not be who we think we are.
While forcing us to reexamine
what we are capable of doing

when caught up in the crucible of behavioral dynamics,
though, Zimbardo
also offers hope. We are capable of resisting evil, he argues, and can even teach ourselves to act heroically. Like Hannah Arendt's

Jerusalem and

Steven Pinker's

The Blank Slate,

The Lucifer

that will change
