Progoff Intensive Journal Program | For Self-Development

Ira Progoff's purpose in creating the Intensive Journal workshops on which this book is based was to give others a language and a process for reflecting on and deepening the meaning of their lives. We have many tools handed to us in At a Journal Workshop-each with a specific shape and function, and each with a full set of instructions on its use. This is a strange, wonderful and complex approach for journey/journaling, using methods the author has taught and evolved over the last 40 years.

JOURNAL WORKSHOP | Ingrid Jane Jones

The Journal to the Self® workshop is a 12-hour course on how to keep a journal for personal growth, creative expression and life enrichment. It was created in 1985 by Kathleen Adams LPC, PTR, Director of the Center for Journal Therapy, Inc., and internationally known pioneer and expert in the power of writing to heal. The early years of the workshop formed the research base for Kathleen Adams' best-selling book, Journal to the Self, published by Warner Books in 1990 (since acquired by ...

My One-Day Journal Article Writing Workshop. I offer a one-day workshop based on two of the most popular sections of my writing workbook Writing Your Journal Article in Twelve Weeks: A Guide to Academic Publishing Success. Although the one-day workshop does not provide the supportive structure of the ten-week course or the one-week workshop, which actually enable students to produce prose for publication, this workshop is an affordable alternative for institutions.

Junk Journal Workshop is Book 2 in the Journal Workshop series. This book contains over 100 pages and 6 chapters. There are many projects included in this book to get you started on your junk journal journey, ranging from beginner to more complex. They are; miniature watercolor paintings, brief overview of digital painting, drying and trimming your paintings, using paper punches, creating a jars and insects journal page, how to draw bees and fireflies (easy), how to print on different paper types, a sea life journal page, hello city page, houses page, templates for envelopes and pockets, tags, drying leaves, decoupage, and a list of products used on the projects. Artist and author Tricia Jacobs describes it as, "A junk journal is an extreme version of an art journal. It pushes the definition of journal over the edge, into a different realm of storytelling. Every junk journal is unique. Most often the focus is collection, inspiration, and three dimensional design. Remember: create, experiment, be you. There is no wrong way to create a junk journal." -Artist Tricia Jacobs, author of the "Journal Workshop" Series for Kindle and in Print on Amazon. This book is written from a Christian perspective and contains Biblical quotations.

You need to run a strategy workshop to help a corporate team make a decision, understand the tools and processes to follow, and require a guide to help you plan and run the workshop. The Strategy Visioning Workshop Journal is the companion guide to our popular books Succeeding as a Management Consultant, The Operations Management Journal, The Corporate Wellness Strategy Journal, The Digital & Information Technology Strategy Journal, The Investment Strategy Journal and The Strategy Journal, an Amazon bestseller. Our books are different. It's practically impossible to find examples of consulting studies, analyses, and proposals. There is clarity and value in seeing this. Reading descriptions of how consultants analyze problems, or write proposals, is not the same as seeing the work. This is what we offer. The process taught can be modified to fit most strategy workshop goals. The journal is divided into 4 parts: (1) The workshop map, (2) Understanding the workshop, (3) The workshop begins, and (4) Output. UNDERSTANDING THE WORKSHOP contains: What is corporate strategy? Visioning workshop to corporate strategy What is the logic of the overall process? How would you pull all the pieces together? Let's walk through a typical visioning workshop What are the explicit objectives of each part of the workshop? What is the objective of the overall workshop? Do we always pre-presents? What are the checklists/milestones/ early warning signs? What happens if the wrong market/segment is selected? Why doesn't one elegant analysis provide the answer? Why don't we use SWOT analysis? Why don't we use Porter's Five Forces? Does this analysis replace a business plan? Should the same logic + approach be used for all corporate strategy studies? Must a workshop format always be used? Why conduct the workshop so early? Is this the entire corporate strategy process? If not, what is there to come? Who should be invited? How should the room/event be organized? Where should the workshop be held? How important is the skill to facilitate the workshop? Who facilitates? Who makes the final decisions? What happens if the client arrives at a different conclusion? This journal helps readers walk into any situation in any organization anywhere in the world and run a strategy visioning workshop via to-do list prompts, guides, and a visual example. All based on the combined best-practices of the author and the ex-McKinsey, BCG, et al. partners who produce all the strategy training programs on StrategyTraining.com. On StrategyTraining.com/FIRMSconsulting.com, you have seen us over the last 10 years help numerous clients solve complex business problems: postal turnaround, merge tech giants, help a bank enter the US Market, etc. Clients who have used the Journal report: A sense of purpose Rapid promotions Career fulfillment Happier colleagues Improved skills Increased productivity Increased focus Client success

New York Times bestselling author Steve Sheinkin presents a follow up to his award-winning book Bomb: The Race to Build--and Steal--the World's Most Dangerous Weapon, taking readers on a terrifying journey into the Cold War and our mutual assured destruction. As World War II comes to a close, the United States and the Soviet Union emerge as the two greatest world powers on extreme opposites of the political spectrum. After the United States showed its hand with the atomic bomb in Hiroshima, the Soviets refuse to be left behind. With communism sweeping the globe, the two nations begin a neck-and-neck competition to build even more destructive bombs and conquer the Space Race. In their battle for dominance, spy planes fly above, armed submarines swim deep below, and undercover agents meet in the dead of night. The Cold War game grows more precarious as weapons are pointed towards each other, with fingers literally on the trigger. The decades-long showdown culminates in the Cuban Missile Crisis, the world's close call with the third—and final—world war.
