Marketing 10/e by Kerin, Hartley and Rudelius continues a tradition of leading the market with contemporary, cutting-edge content presented in a conversational student-oriented style, supported by the most comprehensive, innovative, and useful supplement package available. This text and package is designed to meet the needs of a wide spectrum of faculty—from the professor who just wants a good textbook and a few key supplements, to the professor who wants a top-notch fully integrated multimedia program. Marketing utilizes a unique, innovative, and effective pedagogical approach developed by the authors through the integration of their combined classroom, college, and university experiences. The elements of this approach have been the foundation for each edition of Marketing and serve as the core of the text and its supplements as they evolve and adapt to changes in student learning styles, the growth of the marketing discipline, and the development of new instructional technologies. The distinctive features of the approach are illustrated below: High Engagement Style - Easy-to-read, interactive, writing style that engages students through active learning techniques. Personalized Marketing - A vivid and accurate description of businesses, marketing professionals, and entrepreneurs—through cases, exercises, and testimonials—that allows students to personalize marketing and identify possible career interests. Marketing Decision Making – The use of extended examples, cases, and videos involving people making marketing decisions. Integrated Technology - The use of powerful technical resources and learning solutions. Traditional and Contemporary Coverage - Comprehensive and integrated coverage of traditional and contemporary concepts. Rigorous Framework - A pedagogy based on the use of Learning

Objectives, Learning Reviews, Learning Objectives Reviews, and supportive student supplements.

MARKETING: THE CORE, 2/e by Kerin, Berkowitz, Hartley, and Rudelius continues the tradition of cutting-edge content and student-friendliness set by Marketing 8/e, but in a shorter, more accessible package. The Core distills Marketing's 22 chapters down to 18, leaving instructors just the content they need to cover the essentials of marketing in a single semester. Instructors using The Core also benefit from a full-sized supplements package. The Core is more than just a "baby Kerin"; it combines great writing style, currency, and supplements into the ideal package.

The Tenth Canadian Edition of Marketing provides students with a solid foundation of marketing principles that they need to become successful marketers in today's competitive business world. Written in an engaging, student friendly style with a strong pedagogical framework, Crane Marketing has been updated to reflect cutting edge topics, and exciting examples of marketing in Canada and around the world.

This second Asia Pacific edition of International Marketing continues to offer up-to-date examples from Australia, New Zealand and throughout the Asia Pacific region alongside an international perspective to provide a truly global context. The text examines the unique conditions in which businesses from this region operate, concentrating on the challenges that face marketers. Students are provided with a comprehensive overview of both the theory and application of international marketing, including an examination of the distinct issues that affect a range of enterprises from start-up operations to small, medium and multinational firms. The ongoing concerns of the environment and the sustainability of business are integrated throughout the text. Other important emergent areas affecting the practice of international marketing, such as corporate social responsibility and the dominance of social media and e-commerce are also discussed. To aid class discussions, short case studies are presented at the end of each chapter as well as a case for more extensive analysis at the end of each part. To encourage a learn by doing approach, additional activities for students are available from the companion website: www.cengage.com.au/czinkota2e

Strategic Marketing 8/e by Cravens and Piercy is a text and casebook that discusses the concepts and processes for gaining the competitive advantage in the marketplace. The authors examine many components of a market-driven strategy, including technology, customer service, customer relationships, pricing, and the global economy. The text provides a strategic perspective and extends beyond the traditional focus on managing the marketing mix. The cases demonstrate how real companies build and implement effective strategies. Author David Cravens is well known in the marketing discipline and was the recipient of the Academy of Marketing Science's Outstanding Marketing Educator Award. Co-author Nigel Piercy, has a particular research interest in market-led strategic change and sales management, for which he has attracted academic and practitioner acclaim in the UK and USA.

Marketing: The Core is a more brief, 18-chapter version of the Kerin/Hartley Marketing 14e product, the most rigorous and robust program on the market. The Core 8e also continues to demonstrate the authors' commitment to engagement, leadership, and innovation: Engagement in class-tested, active learning activities to help instructors illustrate textbook concepts as well as examples throughout featuring real people, cases and companies throughout. Media-enhanced PPT slides, alternate cases, and a 5,000+ item test bank are included in the comprehensive instructor resource suite. Leadership in leading, current content and conversational writing style, with new emphasis on marketing metrics and data-driven decision-making, with hyperlinked assignments throughout to easily correlate activities. Innovation in outcomes-oriented Connect®, a highly reliable, easy-to-use homework and learning management solution that embeds learning science and award-winning adaptive tools to improve student results.
