ODD MOM OUT was a deep character study of Marta that focused on personal and professional relationships; this time Marta plays a secondary role as Jane Porter places her spotlight on a supermom MRS. PERFECT in another deep character study. Taylor evolves from her image is the message lifestyle to the realization that true friends are there when things turn nasty. Fans will appreciate Ms. Porter's strong look at what happens to relationships when the walls come tumbling down. Harriet Klausner

Porter's previous novel, ODD MOM OUT, now takes center stage in MRS. PERFECT, where she faces that exact dilemma. An attractive mother of three beautiful girls, wife to the very successful Nathan, and sort of a ringleader for her group of seemingly perfect moms in their upper-class Bellevue, Washington neighborhood, Taylor had left behind a career in public relations to be a mom, and her days couldn't be busier.
