NIGHT OF THE

Night of the spade-foot toads was a good book and I loved how Ben and his teacher became friends it was amazing! I wish I knew a lot about frogs and toads and other reptiles too! If possible, the author should make a second book with a new situation like a new student that knows about sea-creatures tries to become friends with Ben's friends, but Ben gets left out or something like that.

Night of the Spadefoot Toads by Bill Harley

Night of the Spadefoot Toads. " A riot of sound rises and falls all around them. They ' re surrounded by this crazy orchestra – the wind in the trees, the thunder in the sky, the rain pattering on the pool and their jackets, the spring peepers chirping in the distance. And these little spadefoot toads right before them are leading the symphony. " .

An inspiring story of intergenerational friendship, activism, and how our actions can drastically impact our environment. When his father takes a new job in Massachusetts, Ben Moroney must leave behind his best friend Tony, a western banded gecko named Lenny, and worst of all, the Arizona desert home he has loved and explored. Ben's adjustment to his new environment is not going well until he unexpectedly finds a kindred spirit in his eccentric fifth-grade science teacher, Mrs. Tibbets. She introduces him to the rare and elusive Eastern spadefoot toads that make their home on her rural property. When Ben discovers that Mrs. Tibbets's land may be sold to developers, he knows he has to do something. As Ben's obsession with saving the spadefoot toads' habitat grows, his schoolwork and his relationships with his family and new friends suffer. But just when it seems things can't get any worse, Ben finds a way to meet his responsibilities to the people around him and demonstrates the importance of even the smallest efforts to save the earth's rapidly disappearing habitats.

In the second book in the Racing to Freedom trilogy, ex-slave Gabriel faces challenges and setbacks as he pursues his dream of becoming a famous jockey.

Meet Justine McKeen. She's the Queen of Green! She talks a little too much, bosses a little too much and tells the truth, just not all at once. She's trying to save the planet, one person at a time, and when she decides to get something done, it's a lot of fun. In Justine McKeen, Walk the Talk, the second book in the Queen of Green series, Justine decides there are too many cars idling in front of her school. So she comes up with a solution that should help keep the air cleaner. But she soon discovers not many adults trust her crazy ideas.

Ben and Zoe cruise to the Caribbean where a shady marine park has dumped an unwanted young dolphin into the sea. Having been raised in captivity, the dolphin is ill-equipped to survive on its own and soon finds itself in troubled waters. The twins must find the young dolphin and guide it to safety before the confused creature is lost at sea.

A vacation in New York City, New York, turns into a stinky situation when the Monster Hunters seek out alligators that live in the sewers. When team members get lost in the underground maze they panic! Can they find their way out before the rising tide carries them away, or worse? Calico Chapter Books is an imprint of Magic Wagon, a division of ABDO.

Nine-year-old Skye has always had a fascination with flying. She ' d love to be a pilot someday, like both of her parents, but deep down she really wishes she could be a bird. When Skye ' s parents take her to Costa Rica, she is thrilled about all of the beautiful exotic birds she ' ll get to see. What she doesn ' t realize is that her parents have three big surprises planned, and each will offer her a different opportunity to feel what it ' s like to fly. From snorkeling with baby sea turtles to parasailing out on the open ocean to zip-lining through the Costa Rican rainforest, Skye will have more than one chance to fly like a bird before this trip of a lifetime is through.

In this early chapter book, the seventh installment in the Justine McKeen series, Justine sets out to ban bottled water from her school.
