"Tons of Runs" does deliver tons of runs. If you are a jazz player with less than a decade or two of serious woodshedding under your belt, you will find new things to add to your vocabulary. It starts off with one-bar dominant fragments, progressing through major sounds (^, 6, etc), and finally gets to the big, impressive ii V I licks toward the end.

Tons of Runs is a wide-ranging compendium of runs, licks, and lines found in the jazz vernacular, each written in three different keys, and presented in a straight-forward style without ponderous analysis. This book contains useful phrases derived from chord tones, passing tones, resultant scales, and scale-tone chords that piano players can use right away as "vocabulary enhancers." These are the raw materials and tools that piano players everywhere can use to polish their performance and improvisation skills, and even create new and more

Andy LaVerne has taken his years of experience as a first call jazz pianist and created this simple, pocket-sized, easy-to-use reference for playing chords that sound good instantly Jazz pianists spend perhaps 80% of their practice time learning tunes and soloing. When they play in ensembles, however; they spend perhaps 80% of their time comping. It's no wonder that many jazz pianists are sometimes at a loss when it comes to comping competently. That's where Quick Chords can be of benefit--it's a collection of voicings that sound good instantly Quick Chords can also be used as a resource to look up chord voicings. Voicings are written out in every key and organized into 8 common categories which can be found in most standard tunes. The convenient, pocket-sized book (3.5" x 5.5") with 101 pages easily fits into any gig bag---or even your back pocket
