Verified Purchase. I love Lora Leigh's Breed series. I've read each one, probably more than once. Wake the Sleeping Tiger was a good addition. I liked that Chelsea's character has a little more depth in this novel than some of the other heroines in other Breed series.

But where exactly are they going with all those big shiny balloons? Do you think it might be someone's birthday? Can you guess who?

This story explains the actions of two teenage boys, who are confronted by the fight or flight options when their lives are turned upside down by circumstances beyond their control. Andy McLean, the Scot, chooses the 'FIGHT' option. Bullied by his alcoholic father throughout his sixteen years, he comes home one night to his mother being terrorized by her drunken husband. In a fit of uncontrollable rage, Andy attacks his father and accidentally kills him. His self-preservation instinct kicks in and urges him to revert to flight to escape a long prison sentence. Tommy Nelson chooses 'FLIGHT' when, at fifteen years old, his parents are killed in a car crash. The authorities could not find foster parents for him so they were going to send him to an Orphanage for his own safety. Tommy decided to take his chances elsewhere and "did a runner" to become a street kid. He did odd jobs when available or, alternatively, joined a street gang of kids who were also runaways. They did what it

They both decided to kip for the night in the same disused warehouse on the Dockyards at Southampton, to shelter from the icy winter weather. After an initial altercation they formed a strange bond which was to last a lifetime: both afraid, but stronger together. Instinctively trusting one another in a new bond of friendship, they decided to try to make a new life for themselves by stowing away on a ship bound for Australia. Both boys, frightened and pretending to be hard men, looked forward to their sea escape, hoping that Andy's Uncle
